

The Republicans of the Eleventh Kentucky Congressional district nominated Wallace W. Jones.

This New York Tribune is said to be killing Blaine's chances among the workmen of New York.

Two hundred political speeches a night are being made in Maine, and things are described as red hot there.

The Republicans of Indiana appreciate the situation and are working like beavers in all parts of the State.

The Democratic majority in Arkansas is now claimed to be 50,000 a gain of 13,000 since the last election.

The Republicans give up Virginia and concede nine out of ten of the Congressional districts to the Democrats.

A box of the late Senator Garrett Davis has been appointed to a position in the Treasury Department at Washington.

JUDGES BOWEN, of the Superior Court, will probably be a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals to succeed Judge Hines.

REV. LORICK PIERCE, Senior Bishop of the Southern Methodist Church of Georgia, died at Sparta, in that State, on the 3rd inst.

This news has been sent out by the Democratic committee at Columbus that the Republicans are colonizing negroes both in that State and Indiana.

At the recent election in Arkansas nearly one-half the negroes in the State voted the Democratic ticket. The amount repudiating $100,000 worth of railroad and levee bonds was carried.

The Prohibition party in Kansas have had a split and in consequence have two State tickets in the field. The seceders would not pledge themselves to support St. John.

ROSCOE CONKLING is credited with saying: "If Cleveland was a good enough man for Blaine's friends to make Governor of New York, perhaps he is a good man to make President."

It is said the Democrats of Ohio are now thoroughly united. The Pendleton, Hoody and Thurman factions are all working in accord, and the party is better organized than in any previous campaign.

PHOTOGRAPHS of James G. Blaine's $100,000 palace in Washington city have been numerously distributed throughout Maine and other New England States. The object is to show how thrifty members of Congress can make money rapidly and build for themselves palatial mansions.

Blaine and the Irish.

Editor World: Your unsatisfactory answer in yesterday's World to the inquiry, "What has Mr. Blaine ever done for the Irish race?" prompts me to take up my pen to reply to the "conundrum." Let me say that Mr. Blaine has literally done nothing for the Irish in America. I have been a Republican up to the day of his nomination for the Presidency, which was to my mind the greatest insult ever offered the Irish. It was James G. Blaine who was instrumental in securing the arch enemy of the Irish, Russell Lowell, as Minister to England. When the Irish in America were unanimous in rebuking him for his inanity and potent sympathy with England, the Irish-Americans were being thrust into prison, James G. Blaine was Secretary of State. Did he evince his love for the Irish when asked to instruct Mr. Lowell as to certain measures? No! He laughed at us in our helplessness and referred to us as agitators and Communists.

Again, when Mr. Blaine was editor of the Kennebec (Me.) Journal, he was a violent and offensive Know-Nothing (a hater of Europeans and Catholics in particular). Here is an extract from an editorial that every Irishman should commit to memory and repeat when Irish sop is doled out:

"We need stringent laws to regulate the Irish immigration from Europe." "If the present laws are not corrected, and corrected speedily, we shall become worse than Botany Bay, in fact, we are worse now, for more Irish reach here in a single day than were ever transported to the penal colonies in ten years. And these convicts and felons have hardly got our dust upon their feet before they are allowed to vote and control our elections."

"And yet, with these facts plain as the light, denunciations are made that our European immigration is nothing but a benefit to us. We hope, and we sincerely believe, the day is not far distant that this whole subject will be impartially reviewed by the law-making power, and then the just and honorable pride of being an American citizen will suffer no blush from having our paternal right bestowed in full equality upon those who are not of our household."

James G. Blaine the European's (?) friend, wrote the above. Those that were nift at the time to breathe this free air are now cooled and flattered.

James G. Blaine wrote the famous Madigan circular, calling upon Democratic Protestants to knife him because he was a Catholic Irishman.

James G. Blaine was offered a commission as Lieutenant-Colonel in the Seventh Maine Volunteers in 1862 and refused it because the Colonel was an Irishman.

What has James G. Blaine ever done for the Irish race? CHICAGO.

SHE TEMPTED HIM.

Robbins' Story of His Elopement with Miss Fraser.

GALVESTON, Tex., Sept. 5.—This morning L. Robbins, alias J. Black, alias I. Williams, the gay lothario, was to have been tried for kidnapping Hattie Fraser, but as the main witness for the State, William Fraser, had left with his wayward daughter for their Canadian home, the complaint was dismissed. Robbins is, however, in jail on the charge of seduction, having thus far been unable to give bond for his appearance before the next term of the Criminal Court. Robbins is very much crestfallen at the sudden check in his gay career. To-day he made the following statement of the affair to your correspondent, which shows up some inner workings of the matter. Robbins states that he is a little over thirty-seven years old, and resides in London, Ont., where he has a wife and four children, that his married life has always been a quiet and happy one, and on his wife's account more than his own he deeply regrets the foolishness he has committed. He claims that he was not wholly to blame in the affair, and that few men could have resisted the temptation which assailed him, which he at last reluctantly yielded. For over four months back the girl Hattie had been pestering him to take her away from home, and he steadily refused to do so and would not have done had he not been to a certain extent forced into it. About the 14th inst. he received a letter from the girl, which he now has in his possession, but will not give it up for publication, telling him that she was determined to leave home and that he must meet her. When she had obtained a three days' leave of absence from home on the pretense of visiting relatives, and that he would be on his train on the following Saturday night, he went on the next day to meet her. When he saw her, he was so much attracted by her, and in the hope of being able to dissuade her from going to meet her. When they met he endeavored to reason with her, but she would listen to nothing, and said she wanted to have her fun out. Thinking he might be able to get her to her home at the end of her three days' leave he decided to humor her, but only to his disappointment and sorrow, as at the end of that time she was more than ever decided against going back home. In this position, unable to bring her back to her parents and unwilling to abandon her, he very foolishly allowed the time to slip by and events to shape themselves without any further attempts on his part, but he did not realize the enormity of his offense until behind the iron bars of his cell he was left a prey to his reflections, the bitterness of which may be better imagined than described. He has heretofore enjoyed a good reputation, and when out of this scrape he will profit by the severe lesson he has been taught, and go back to his wife and children by far a sadder and wiser man.

Nerry Morrison, the Swindler, Trying to Escape His Wife.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 5.—A. N. Morrison has grown tired of his wife whom he married in sporting houses in Denver, Colorado, three years ago, and is trying to desert in this city. She claims to have been a true wife. On a recent visit to Toledo relatives last night, she was taken to the train to go to the St. Clair hotel, where her husband is stopping. He had left orders not to admit her. She raised such a rumpus, however, that the patrol wagon was sent for, and she then consented to leave in a hack. Morrison is a notorious character, who, in partnership with John Fleming of Detroit, kept a stock-elevating concern in the Times building. Since some time since they sent seductive advertisements throughout the country promising to make for investors with their fifty cents on the dollar. It is estimated that the firm made $100,000 in two months. The United States postal authorities investigated and declared them a fraud. They were prosecuted at Joliet, Illinois. Morrison escaped through a technicality. His appearance at the St. Clair Hotel is the first of him for some time.

A DECIDEDLY LIVELY RUMOR.

In Which Chairs, Knives and Other Things Are Used.

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 5.—At Portage Lake, near Ashland, John Fraser and a man named Macdonald were seen to be drinking at the house of Edward Fox at a late hour. Fox requested the men to go home, whereupon they knocked him senseless. His daughter gave an alarm and Fox's son, who lives across the road, came to the rescue. He grabbed a chair and forced Fraser to the floor. Fraser recovered and came at Fox. The two clinked, drew pocket knives and commenced stabbing and slashing each other. A second alarm brought in a man named McDowd and two laborers. Fraser's nose was cut almost off, his hanging by a small piece of skin; also several small wounds. Fox had an arm badly cut. The men were arrested. When it was supposed Fraser was in a wagon safe he bolted away from the captors and ran to the house as if crazy, and jumped through three windows and out a door, smashing them. At last they quieted Fraser and he went home.

Stationary Engineers.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 5.—The National Association of Stationary Engineers have elected the following officers: President, G. B. Beckley, of Chicago; Vice President, H. J. Kilpatrick, of St. Louis; Secretary, G. A. Mink, of Cincinnati; Treasurer, G. M. McKee, of Nashville. The Committee on Mutual Aid reported the total number of members as 110; receipts, $207; expenses, $107. A resolution to pay the salaries of the association $500 for his services next year passed.

A BLOW TO MINERS.

Five Mines to Close Down for a Year—500 Men Thrown Out.

NEW BRITAINVILLE, O., Sept. 5.—There is great excitement here over the announcement that the Ohio coal fields have decided to suspend operations for one year here, and has ordered all its stock, powder, equipments, etc., to the lower Hooker mines. This move was made and throws five hundred miners out of employment.

Steamer General Mend Sunk.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 5.—The steamer General Mend sank a rock and struck the opposite Capital Building and sank in seven feet of water with a cargo of six thousand sacks of wheat. She was on her way to St. Louis. The vessel is valued at $1,000.

Sam Randall Nominations.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5.—The Democratic Convention for the nomination of a candidate to represent the Third District in Congress was held this morning. On motion, Samuel J. Randall was named as the nominee of the convention. On motion the nomination was closed and Randall was nominated by acclamation. He addressed the convention in a most little speech, after which the convention adjourned.

Gordon's Money.

CALGO, Sept. 5.—It has just transpired that Honable Pacha Khalifa, Governor of Barbary, is very much crestfallen at the fall of Jerker, took Gordon's money to Mahdi.

Thirty Miners Killed.

ROME, Sept. 5.—During the fire in the sulphur mine near Nicotia City, this morning, thirty miners were killed.

Steamship Greenland Burned.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Sept. 5.—The steamship Greenland was burned to the water's edge last night at Harbor Grace. She was towed to River-bank and sank. She is a total wreck.

This following is given as a sure remedy against cabbage worms: A heaping tablespoonful of saltpetre dissolved in hot water, added to a gallon of cold water and applied to the centre of the plant.

MARSHAL REDMOND has settled with the city and received his quietus. The delinquent taxes for last year have been collected in full and amounted to about $10 more than he was responsible for. This is good work.

A GENTLEMAN pig was arrested yesterday, by Marshal Redmond, for promiscuous the streets contrary to a law recently enacted by the council. He was locked up until his owner calls for him who will be required to pay the penalty fixed by the ordinance.

On the morning of the 3rd instant, Mr. Robert Ewing, an old and respected citizen of Ewing Station, arose in his usual health apparently, and while tying his shoes fell from his chair and died almost instantly. It is supposed, from heart disease. He was about sixty-five years old, and a bachelor in good financial circumstances.

MR. CHARLES SMITH with a few select friends celebrated the twenty-fourth anniversary of his birth last evening. The overflowing "cup of youth" sparkled to toasts many and appropriate, inspiring each present with a mutual feeling that it was good to have health and birthdays. The hour of departure told of but one mistake that they had run into some other man's birthday.

Rev. Dr. J. A. HENDERSON, of the Southern Methodist Church, of this city, will preach his last sermon for this conference year next Sunday morning, services also at night. Dr. Henderson has been in charge of the church here for twelve months and has made friends by the hundreds. The church of which he is pastor has had some fifty or sixty additions to its membership in the last year.

MR. CHARLES EMERSON, who is preparing the new business directory for this city, informs the BULLETIN that he has completed the canvass for names, and will now begin soliciting advertisements and subscriptions to the work. It will be furnished only to subscribers and cannot be bought after the subscription list has been closed. Mr. Emerson requests us to say that citizens who have changed their places of residence since he called upon them, will confer a favor by notifying him of such change that it may be properly recorded in the work. The directory has been carefully prepared and contains a great deal of information that will be useful, and as it will be in the hands of everybody, it is an excellent medium for advertising.

Our Charming Toothpowder.
We are winning an enviable distinction for their fine teeth. This, they in great measure owe to the beautifying and restorative influence of Sodalint, the most popular preparation for the teeth on this continent. It removes from the dental surface every impurity, checks decay and enables the teeth to masticate without contaminating the food, thus indirectly contributing to healthful nutrition. It effectually neutralizes an unpleasant odor of the breath.

Nothing like it.
No medicine has ever been known so effectual in the cure of all those diseases arising from an impure condition of the blood as Scovill's Sarsaparilla, or Blood and Liver Syrup, the universal remedy for the cure of scrofula, white swellings, rheumatism, Pimples, blotches, eruptions, venereal sores, and diseases, consumption, goitre, boils, cancers, and all kindred diseases. There is no better means of securing a beautiful complexion than by using Scovill's Sarsaparilla, or Blood & Liver Syrup, which cleanses the blood and gives permanent beauty to the skin.

Cure for Piles.
Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of itching and swelling in the lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some disease of the bowels or perhaps a cold. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as flatulency, heaviness of the stomach, etc. A medicine is administered, producing a very disagreeable itching about the rectum, and the patient is told to use the medicine, and the itching will stop. This is the case with the medicine, and the itching will stop. This is the case with the medicine, and the itching will stop.

Our Charming Toothpowder.
We are winning an enviable distinction for their fine teeth. This, they in great measure owe to the beautifying and restorative influence of Sodalint, the most popular preparation for the teeth on this continent. It removes from the dental surface every impurity, checks decay and enables the teeth to masticate without contaminating the food, thus indirectly contributing to healthful nutrition. It effectually neutralizes an unpleasant odor of the breath.

Nothing like it.
No medicine has ever been known so effectual in the cure of all those diseases arising from an impure condition of the blood as Scovill's Sarsaparilla, or Blood and Liver Syrup, the universal remedy for the cure of scrofula, white swellings, rheumatism, Pimples, blotches, eruptions, venereal sores, and diseases, consumption, goitre, boils, cancers, and all kindred diseases. There is no better means of securing a beautiful complexion than by using Scovill's Sarsaparilla, or Blood & Liver Syrup, which cleanses the blood and gives permanent beauty to the skin.

Cure for Piles.
Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of itching and swelling in the lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some disease of the bowels or perhaps a cold. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as flatulency, heaviness of the stomach, etc. A medicine is administered, producing a very disagreeable itching about the rectum, and the patient is told to use the medicine, and the itching will stop. This is the case with the medicine, and the itching will stop.
